HEAD COACH NIKO MEDVED

Niko Medved was named the University of Minnesota men's basketball coach on March 24, 2025. He begins his Gopher head coaching career with 12 years of head coaching experience, most recently at Colorado State University. Medved is Minnesota's 19th head coach in program history.

Medved, who earned both a bachelor's and master's degree from Minnesota, returns to his alma mater after a seven-year head coaching stint at Colorado State. It marks the second time Medved has been a coach at Minnesota, as he was an assistant coach during the 2006-07 season. Medved started his collegiate basketball career at Williams Arena when he served as a student manager under former Gopher coach Clem Haskins.

Medved takes over the Minnesota program with an overall career record of 222-172 and was 143-85 at Colorado State. The Roseville, Minn., native completed a historic run at Colorado State, as the Rams competed in the NCAA Tournament three of the last four years. In the 2024-25 season, Medved led Colorado State to a Mountain West tournament championship and automatic NCAA Tournament berth, where they advanced to the Round of 32 with a First Round win over Memphis. Nique Clifford went on to be drafted 24th overall in the 2025 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings and became Medved's second player drafted in three years.

In 2023-24, Medved led Colorado State to its highest ranking in school history, as the Rams reached No. 13 in the Associated Press poll and No. 12 in the Coaches Poll. The Rams earned an NCAA Tournament at-large bid and defeated Virginia for the program's first NCAA Tournament win since 2012. Medved's first NCAA Tournament appearance came in 2022, which was the program's first in nine seasons. Medved was also the College Insider's recipient of the 2023-24 Skip Prosser Man of the Year award, which is presented annually to the Division I coach who wins with integrity, on and off the court.

In his time with the Rams, Medved recorded the second-most wins (143) in program history and was the fifth coach in school history to reach 100 wins. He was Colorado State's only coach to record 20 or more wins in a season five times. Medved was named the United States Basketball Writers Association's District Coach of the Year in 2022 and 2021.

During Medved's time, Colorado State had a first-team All-Mountain West selection for seven consecutive years: Nico Carvacho (2019, 2020), David Roddy (2021, 2022), Isaiah Stevens (2023, 2024) and Nique Clifford (2025). In all, there were 18 all-conference selections, including Roddy as the 2022 Mountain West Player of the Year. In addition, the Rams also had five NABC and USBWA all-district honorees under Medved's watch. Roddy was named a 2021 All-America selection and went on to be the 23rd overall pick in the 2022 NBA draft and currently playing with the Toronto Raptors. Stevens became Colorado State's all-time leading scorer and assist leader at 2,350 points and 853 assists, respectively. He is currently on a two-way contract with the Sacramento Kings.

Before his time at Colorado State, Medved spent the 2017-18 season at Drake, where the Bulldogs went 17-17 overall and were 10-8 in the Missouri Valley Conference. That mark placed the Bulldogs third in the league that season, a five-game league win improvement from the previous year. Their 17-win season placed the Bulldogs in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament, which was Drake's first postseason competition in six years.

Medved began his head coaching career at Furman, where he led the Paladins from 2013-17. His stint there was capped off by a 2017 Southern Conference regular season championship and Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors. It was Furman's first regular season championship in 26 years and first 20-win season since 2011. Medved twice coached the Southern Conference Player of the Year in Stephen Croone (2015-16) and Devin Sibley, Jr. (2016-17). After taking over a seven-win team, Furman improved each year under Medved with nine, 11, 19 and 23-win seasons, including two CollegeInsider.com Tournament appearances in 2016 and 2017.

After serving as a Gopher student manager, Medved began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Macalester College from 1997-99. He then was an assistant coach at Furman from 1999-2006 before returning to Minnesota for the 2006-07 season. Medved was also an assistant coach at Colorado State from 2007-13 before beginning his head coaching career at Furman in 2013.

Medved earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology (1997) and his master's in sport management (1999) from the University of Minnesota.

He and his wife, Erica, have two daughters, Aly and Taylor.

BRIAN COOLEY

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON

Brian Cooley joined the University of Minnesota coaching staff in March of 2025 after a four-year stint at Colorado State. Cooley was also an assistant coach under Niko Medved during his CSU tenure.

Cooley was at Colorado State from 2021-25 where he helped the Rams to three NCAA tournament berths in four seasons. Working with the Rams' big men, he oversaw the development of All-American and first round NBA draft pick David Roddy. He also oversaw one of the most efficient shooting seasons in program history from another CSU big man in Patrick Cartier in 2022-23.

Prior to Colorado State, Cooley spent five seasons at Wright State (2016-21), the last four as the associate head coach. He also served as the Raiders' recruiting coordinator. Cooley helped the program to an overall record of 109-49, three conference championships and three postseason bids. He helped Wright State to the NCAA Tournament in 2018.

Cooley was at South Dakota State for nine seasons from 2007-18, the last seven as an assistant coach and the first two as a graduate assistant. While in Brookings, he saw 154 wins, 121 of those over the final five seasons, all five ending with a postseason berth. Three times SDSU went to the NCAA Tournament with Cooley on staff.

The program picked up its first-ever postseason win in 2015 when it defeated Colorado State in the first round of the NIT.

Cooley started his coaching career as an assistant coach for Bellevue East High School in Bellevue, Nebraska during the 2006-07 season.

Cooley also earned Great Plains Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete honors in 2006, and graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 2006 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in health and physical education.

Cooley graduated with his master's degree in sports pedagogy from South Dakota State in the spring of 2009.

ARMON GATES

Armon Gates joined Medved's staff in March of 2025 after a two-year tenure at Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Oklahoma advanced to a NCAA tournament berth in 2025 for the first time in four years. He also assisted in recruiting and coaching eventual seventh-round NBA draft selection, Jeremiah Fears.

Gates is no stranger to Big Ten play, having previously been an assistant coach at Oregon, Nebraska and Northwestern. Gates was an assistant at Oregon for the 2022-23 season. The Ducks finished 21-15 and were one of the final eight teams in the NIT.

Gates spent four seasons (2019-22) as an assistant coach at Nebraska. He was instrumental in developing Dalano Banton and Cam Mack. Banton was selected in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft and was only the second player in program history to notch a triple-double. Gates tutored Mack to 2019-20 All-Big Ten honors. Mack finished third on Nebraska's single-season assist chart.

Prior to his time with the Huskers, Gates was at Northwestern for five seasons (2013-18). Gates helped the Wildcats tally a pair of 20-win seasons and reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history in 2017. The Wildcats recorded a top-30 recruiting class in 2014 and the 24th-ranked class by 247Sports in 2018. Gates coached All-Big Ten performers Bryant McIntosh, Vic Law, Scottie Lindsey, Tre Demps and Drew Crawford. McIntosh finished fifth on the Big Ten's career assist list.

Gates also spent two seasons at Loyola Chicago (2011-13) during Porter Moser's first two seasons leading the program. During his time with the Ramblers, Ben Averkamp earned All-Horizon League honors. Averkamp was the first Loyola player in five seasons to earn first- or second-team all-conference recognition.

During the 2010-11 season, Gates served as an assistant coach at TCU and developed Hank Thorns, who earned third-team All-Mountain West Conference accolades. Thorns ranked fourth nationally in assists per game (7.0) and 12th in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.7). His 225 assists were the second highest total in a single season in Mountain West history.

Gates also served two seasons (2008-10) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Kent State. The Golden Flashes won the 2009-10 Mid-American Conference regular season title.

As a player for the Golden Flashes, Gates helped the program to an 88-42 record, four consecutive 20-win seasons and a trio of postseason appearances. At the conclusion of his playing days, he ranked second in school history with 200 3-point field goals.

Gates graduated from Kent State in 2005 with a degree in leisure studies and obtained his master's degree in sports administration in 2007. He played prep ball at Hillcrest High School and spent one season at Brewster (N.H.) academy.

Gates and his wife Ashley have two daughters (Gaida and Milan) and two sons (Kaiere and Blaze). Gates' older brother, Dennis, is the University of Missouri head men's basketball coach.

AARON KATSUMA

Katsuma returned to his alma mater in April of 2025 after a two-year tenure at New Mexico and reconnects with Medved, working together for six seasons previously.

In his time with the Lobos, he helped them to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, a Mountain West regular season title and a Mountain West Tournament championship. In the 2024-25 season, the Lobos went 17-3 in the league, led by three All-Mountain West Players, including the league's player of the year Donovan Dent. New Mexico also earned a 2025 NCAA Tournament first-round win over Marquette. In the 2023-24 season, Katsuma helped the Lobos to a 26-10 record and their first NCAA tournament appearance since 2014. New Mexico had five all-conference players that season, including Dent and JT Toppin, who was also the Mountain West Co-Freshman of the Year.

Katsuma spent five seasons at Colorado State and one year with Medved at Drake in roles as the Director of Basketball Operations and Director of Recruiting. During his five seasons at Colorado State, Katsuma was part of a staff that led the Rams to two postseason appearances, including a NCAA bid in 2022. In 2022, he was honored with the Asian Coaches Association Coach of the Year award.

After serving as a manager at Minnesota while working on his undergraduate degree for four seasons from 2010-11 to 2013-14, Katsuma was a graduate manager for two seasons in 2014-15 and 2015-16 where he helped with scouting, academics and player development. Upon gaining his masters, he spent the 2016-17 season with the Golden Gophers as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel as the program won 24 games and reached the NCAA Tournament.

Katsuma graduated from Minnesota in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in sport management. He earned his master's of education in applied kinesiology/sport and exercise science from Minnesota in 2016.

DAVE THORSON

ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH CONSECUTIVE SEASON/NINTH OVERALL

Dave Thorson continues his role as assistant coach of the Golden Gophers and began his second tenure with the Maroon and Gold in 2021.

Thorson, who is one of the most decorated coaches to grace a sideline in Minnesota, reunites with Medved after serving as an assistant with Medved for three years at Colorado State from 2018-21 and one year at Drake in the 2017-18 season. The duo were also with Golden Gopher men's basketball under former coach Clem Haskins when Medved was a student manager.

Thorson was a part of the Minnesota staff that developed Dawson Garcia as a three-time All-Big Ten selection and top 10 in Gopher career scoring. Garcia led Minnesota in points and rebounds all three of his seasons, including 614 points in 2024-25, which ranked top five in the Big Ten.

At Colorado State, Thorson helped revive a program that won 11 games prior to his arrival. In his first year on staff, the Rams won 12 games and then posted 20 wins in 2019-20 and 2020-21. Colorado State advanced to the 2021 NIT Semifinals and finished the season 20-7. In his one season at Drake, the Bulldogs went 17-17 in 2017-18 after recording just seven wins the year prior.

Thorson's name is practically synonymous with amateur basketball in Minnesota. He was previously a Minnesota assistant coach from 1990-94 and then coached DeLaSalle High School in Minneapolis for 23 years. At DeLaSalle, Thorson guided his teams to nine state championships, which included six consecutive and an overall record of 527-130.

The nine state championships are the most by a coach in state history while the six-year championship streak is also a state record. His teams also finished as state runners-up twice, third once and fourth once.

Thorson's teams captured 20 Tri-Metro Conference championships and won a conference record 72-straight games from 1998-02. He was named the Minnesota Class 3A Coach of the Year two times and was inducted into the Minnesota Basketball Coaches Association's Hall of Fame in October 2019.

Thorson began his career as an assistant at South Dakota in 1989.

Thorson and his wife, Rita, have one child, a daughter, Ella Ray.

CHAD WARNER

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON

Chad Warner was hired as University of Minnesota assistant coach in April of 2025.

Warner was at Furman for three years, the first two as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate coach in the 2024-25 campaign. Furman finished last season with a 25-10 overall record, advanced to the Southern Conference Championship title game and competed in the National Invitation Tournament. Warner assisted in leading the 2022-23 Paladins to a school-record 28 victories, highlighted by an 88-79 triumph over Chattanooga in the SoCon Championship game and a 68-67 victory over No. 4 seed Virginia in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Orlando, Fla.

Prior to his Furman tenure, Warner spent the previous five seasons as head coach at Flagler College, leading the Saints to a 72-63 record highlighted by an 18-3 mark in 2020-21 and 23-8 in 2021-22. He was also the head coach for eight seasons at Shorter University posting a 156-91 record. In 13 seasons as a head coach, Warner amassed a 228-154 overall record. Warner was the winningest coach in program history at Shorter with 156 victories, including a school-record 34 wins in 2011-12. Shorter advanced to the NAIA Division I "Fab Four" that year and was ranked No. 1 nationally for most of the season. He was named the NABC NAIA Division I National Coach of the Year. At Shorter, he coached six NAIA All-Americans and nine All-Southern States Athletic Conference (SSAC) selections.

He began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Georgia, serving as a graduate assistant under head coach Jim Harrick. Warner graduated from Georgia in 1998 with his bachelor's degree in journalism. He earned a walk-on spot as a freshman under head coach Hugh Durham. After graduating from Georgia, he was an associate head coach at the Darlington School for four seasons.

Warner and his wife, Karin, have three children: Aly, Caroline, and Jack.

JOE DE CIMAN

CHIEF OF STAFF

Joe De Ciman was named Chief of Staff at the University of Minnesota in April of 2025. In his role, he oversees all off-court activities for the men's basketball team including academic success and career development.

Prior to his time at Minnesota, De Ciman was at his alma mater, Colorado State, from 2018-25. De Ciman helped CSU to a trio of NCAA Tournament berths (2022, 2024 and 2025) and a NIT semifinal (2021). Over his six seasons, the Rams won 20-plus games five times.

As an athlete for the Rams, De Ciman finished his career as the winningest player in CSU history with 87 wins during his four-years in Fort Collins. He also was tied for third in career games played with 123, starting in 89 of them and the last 73 straight. As a senior year, De Ciman started all 34 games, averaging 10.3 points, 5.2 rebounds, 1.7 assists and a team-high 32.7 minutes a game. A four-time academic all-conference honoree at CSU, De Ciman earned a bachelor's degree in health and exercise science from CSU in 2016 and his master's in education and human resource studies in 2019.

Following his senior season, De Ciman played two years of professional basketball in Spain. His first year, he helped Iraurgi Saski Baloia to the Spanish LEB Plata championship, earning them promotion to the LEB ORO division.

RACHEL HERNDON

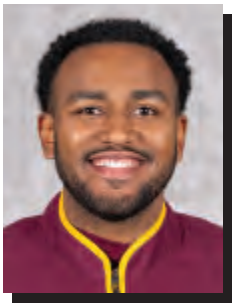
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Rachel Herndon was hired in April of 2025 and serves as director of operations, a role she also held at Colorado State under coach Medved. Herndon joins the Gophers after a year stint with her alma mater.

During her undergrad, Herndon worked with the Colorado State football program as an intern in operations and recruiting. Following graduation from Colorado State in 2018, she became an elementary school teacher. During that time, she was the assistant athletic director at Littleton Preparatory Charter School and the junior high boys' basketball coach. She spent five years as an educator before returning to CSU in 2024.

ANTHONY HOLLAND

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL



Anthony Holland joined the Gopher staff in April of 2025 as director of player personnel. Holland was at Colorado State after completing his playing career at Washington following the 2023-24 season. Holland appeared in 31 of the team's 32 games his senior season with Washington and averaged 12.4 minutes per game. Prior to his time with the Huskies, Holland played for four seasons at Fresno State before using his COVID year in Seattle. He played in 113 games as a Bulldog and became a regular starter in his sophomore season, averaging 6.6 points and 5.0 rebounds for his career. Holland graduated with a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Fresno State in 2023 and obtained a master's degree at Washington in intercollegiate athletic leadership in 2024.

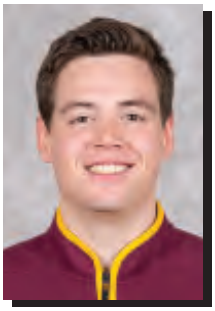
LUCAS STIEBER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Lucas Stieber joined Minnesota as a director of player development in April of 2025. Before his time at Minnesota, Stieber was at Colorado State in the 2024-25 season. Stieber played four years of collegiate basketball, first at Green Bay followed by two at Gardner-Webb. The Green Bay, Wis., native played in 53 games for the Phoenix, he was named to the Horizon League All-Freshman Team in the 2020-21 season. For GWU, the guard started 78 of the 116 games he played, including all 32 in 2023-24. Stieber averaged 5.0 points, 3.3 rebounds and 3.0 assists for his career. He earned a bachelor's degree from Green Bay in 2022 in sports communications. He went on to earn a master's degree in sports management from Gardner Webb in 2024. Stieber comes from a long line of basketball coaches. He is the grandson of legendary coach Dick Bennett and nephew of former coach Virginia head coach Tony Bennett.

DREW EVENSON

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING AND ANALYTICS



Drew Evenson was named Director of Scouting and Analytics in June of 2025. Evenson joined the Gopher men's basketball program as a student manager before the 2022-23 season and was elevated to head manager in 2023. As head manager, the Holmen, Wis. product assisted with daily operations for the student-athletes and staff, as well as film breakdown and analytics. Evenson graduated from the University of Minnesota in May of 2025 with a bachelor's degree in sports management.

WILLIAMS ARENA

Steeped in history and tradition, Williams Arena is one of the greatest arenas in college basketball history.

Originally opened in 1928, "The Barn" has undergone major renovations, making the arena not just one of the oldest and traditional buildings in the country, but one of the most complete and cutting-edge.

During the summer of 2009, the original floor of the arena was replaced at a cost of approximately $600,000. The floor was extended as well and new baskets were purchased.

In the winter of 2005, a state-of-the-art team lounge area was added, including several high definition televisions, a theater-style team film room, a coaches' strategy room, computer lab, kitchen and large expansive lounge area. The area is complete with every amenity that a Gopher basketball player would need. In addition, the team's training area, located down the hall from the locker room and team lounge area, was remodeled and expanded.

In the summer of 1997, 21 luxury barn lofts above the second deck were built. The lofts offer a spectacular birds-eye view of the court with luxury amenities. The $2.3 million project added 304 seats to the capacity, raising it to 14,625.

Following the 1991-92 season, the renovation of Williams Arena began as part of a $41 million project for on-campus sports facilities. The first phase was completed in time for the 1992-93 season opener. The Golden Gophers' locker room, training room, spacious offices and team meeting rooms, are now state-of-the-art. The locker room was named in honor of former Golden Gopher coach Ozzie Cowles through the more than $100,000 in gifts from many of his former players.

Construction on what is now known as Williams Arena was started in 1927 and completed in 1928, when it was dedicated as the University of Minnesota Field House. It cost $650,000 and initially had a seating capacity of 14,100 with bleacher and standing room expansion to 16,000. The original building housed basketball and winter football practice facilities. When the basketball season was completed, the portable floor was taken out and replaced by a pair of tennis courts and an indoor track. Ohio State won the first basketball game held in the building, scoring a 42-40 double overtime victory over the Golden Gophers on Feb. 4, 1928.

The building was remodeled in 1950. Renamed in honor of Dr. Henry L. Williams, U of M football coach from 1900 to 1921, it was divided into a hockey arena on one end and a basketball arena with a seating capacity of 18,025 on the other. From 1950 until 1971, it had the largest capacity of any collegiate basketball arena in the country. The capacity has been reduced to 14,625 in recent years due to renovation, fire-code restrictions and handicapped-seating construction.

The east end addition is highlighted by the Williams Arena Club on the third floor. The Club overlooks the floor and can hold parties of up to 200 fans, adding another touch of class to an already classy arena. The second phase of the renovation project was completed during the summer of 1993. It included the installation of theater-style seats, the widening of concourse areas and the addition of both concession areas and women's restrooms.

A large portion of the renovation was financed by private gifts, including those to the successful $5.5 million sports-facilities campaign, and by the generous participation of fans through the assured-seating program.

The site of the 1951 NCAA Finals, "The Barn" can be a frightening venue for opponents. The raised floor, one of only a handful in the country, and the deafening roar of 14,000-plus fans unquestionably has something to do with it. Spectators need to only witness the atmosphere and feel the electricty in The Barn just prior to any Big Ten game to find enough evidence to support that fact. With sellout crowds cheering them on, the Golden Gophers have become very tough to beat at home in front of their loyal fans. The Golden Gophers suffered only two losing seasons at the Barn since the 1935-36 campaign. In their first season under Richard Pitino, the Gophers finished with a 20-3 record at home, including a perfect 14-0 mark in non-conference play. The Golden Gophers' overall record in "The Barn" stands at 855-331 for a winning percentage of .721.

A long and illustrious list of college basketball's greatest players have run the Williams Arena hardwood through the years, and many memorable games have been contested within its hallowed walls. The historic arena is among the finest in college basketball and enable that mystique to live on for many years to come. Williams Arena is truly what college basketball is all about.

MIKE GRIMM

radio voice of the Gophers

Mike Grimm enters his 20th year as the radio voice of Golden Gopher basketball. Grimm was named the co-winner of the 2009, 2010 & 2013 and 2020 Minnesota Sportscaster of the Year awards in a vote of his peers from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

In addition to his Golden Gopher basketball play-by-play duties, Grimm serves as the play-by-play voice for Golden Gopher football broadcasts. He is the co-host for Niko Medved and P.J. Fleck's weekly radio shows. and also produces and anchors "The Golden Gopher Daily Update" heard across Minnesota on the Gopher Radio Network.

Grimm is also the full-time Sports Director at the statewide Minnesota News Network, where his award-winning sports updates are heard on 50 stations across the state. He covers the Gophers, Twins, Vikings, Wild, and Timberwolves for MNN.

Prior to his work on the Gopher Radio Network and MNN, Grimm was the primary sports host on legendary station KMOX (1120-AM) in St. Louis for five years. He served as the station's pre-game and post-game host of St. Louis Cardinals baseball, and also covered the St. Louis Rams, Blues, and Billikens extensively. Grimm covered a Super Bowl, a World Series, a Final Four, the Stanley Cup playoffs, and many other marquee events while at KMOX.

Before his time in St. Louis, Grimm worked at WMT Radio (600-AM) in Cedar Rapids, Iowa from 1993-2001. He was the station's mid-day talk show host and the afternoon sports anchor. He was the play-by-play announcer for Iowa women's basketball in 2000-2001. He was a fill-in commentator on Iowa men's basketball games from 1993-1996 and also served as a pre-game and post-game host for Iowa Hawkeye football from 1996-2001. He was the voice of the statewide radio network for high school football and basketball championships in Iowa from 1998-2001. He also anchored sportscasts on legendary WHO Radio (1040-AM) in Des Moines from 1998-2001. The NSSA named Grimm the 1999 Iowa Sportscaster of the Year.

Grimm graduated from Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, where he served as play-by-play voice of Norse sports from 1990-1993 on KWLC Radio (1240-AM). He called his first basketball game on the radio when he was a 19-year old college freshman.

Grimm and his wife, Kelly, have two children – Jacob and Lauren – and live in Lakeville.

AL NOLEN

Al Nolen is in his third year as color commentator for Golden Gopher basketball. Nolen joined the Gopher Radio Network in September of 2023.

Nolen was a member of the Gopher men's basketball team from 2008-11, where he played in 98 career games, including 67 starts and amassed 595 points, 205 steals and 394 assists. He graduated with a bachelor of science in business and marketing. After graduation, Nolen was drafted by and played in the NBA G-League, completing his professional basketball career in Germany and the Czech Republic.

Following his professional career, the Minneapolis native returned to his hometown and started his career in education with the Minneapolis and Osseo Public School districts, including eight years working with at-risk youth, as well as coaching middle and high school varsity basketball. In 2020, he founded the Al Nolen Foundation. The non-profit organization was built to create an affirming and supportive environment that nurtures higher-risk youth on their journey to overcome emotional trauma, social isolation, and economic hardships. The Al Nolen Foundation creates fun, inclusive and educational activities designed to develop basic life skills that will be key components in everyday success.
